

Capital Credit Union School Saving Scheme, Terms and Conditions

- The purpose of the School Saving Scheme is to encourage savings by Capital Credit Union's juvenile members who are attending primary school. Upon joining, members of the School Saving Scheme will be given a Savers Reward Card.
- Each time the owner of the Savers Reward Card lodges money into their credit union account, a reward sticker will be placed on the card.
- To participate in the School Saving Scheme, participants must use a Savers Reward Card which can be collected in any Capital Credit Union branch (depending on stock being available).
- To use the Savers Reward Card, you must first be a member of Capital Credit Union and be enrolled in a primary school.
- The Savers Reward Card may only be used by the Capital Credit Union member or their parent or guardian.
- The card owner is the person named on the card.
- The Savers Reward Card may only be used in a Capital Credit Union branch.
- The Savers Reward Card is non-transferable.
- The minimum lodgement amount by the credit union member is €1 in order to receive a reward sticker.
- Members can collect and submit as many cards as they like.
- The card remains the property of the credit union member.
